

Access Capital Partners strengthens Team with a new appointment

PARIS – September 2007– European private equity fund-of-funds specialist Access Capital Partners (“ACP”) is delighted to announce the appointment of Frédéric Evain as Investment Director.

Frédéric Evain. Frédéric has 6 years of private equity experience. Prior to joining Access in 2007, he was Investment Director at Altium Capital, a European Private Equity Fund of Funds manager. Frédéric holds a graduate degree in finance, business and administration from Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Nantes. He is a French nation

Access Capital Partners

Access Capital Partners is an independent European fund of funds manager, created in 1999 and specialising in Growth Mid-market Buy-out and Technology funds in Europe.

With Euro 2.1 billion under management through 4 generations of co-mingled funds of funds and 9 single client accounts, Access has progressively built strong relationships with a wide array of European and North American clients such as pension funds, insurance companies, banks or family offices.

The 27 member team is committed to deliver superior returns to clients through highly disciplined internal processes in the sourcing, analysis, selection and monitoring of fund investments.