Five new appointments strengthen the Access Capital Partners team and further enhance Access' Nordic presence and business overall.

European Private Equity Fund of funds Access Capital Partners ("Access") is reinforcing its Finnish base with the recruitments of Mikko Moilanen as Partner and Managing Director of the Helsinki office, and Max Vuokko as Investment Associate. Mikko will carry investment responsibility over Nordic countries and will take a lead role with client relationships in Finland.

In addition, Access has appointed Louis Trincano as Advising Partner to develop new client relationships in North America.

Christine Martin-Pintos and Clothilde Boucher have also joined the team as Secretary General and Group Controller to enhance Access' corporate and legal functions.

These new appointments strongly reinforce Access' platform in order to deliver investment performance and high quality service to its investors.

Access' team has grown to over 40 dedicated professionals including 10 Partners operating from Paris, Brussels, Helsinki, Munich and London.

Mikko Moilanen, Partner & Managing Director of Access Finland

Prior to joining Access on September 5th 2011, Mikko was Private Equity Portfolio Manager at Keva, the Local Government Pensions Institution in Helsinki, for five years. He helped to grow the private equity investments from €500 million to over €1 billion, facilitated the expansion into new geographic regions, and established relationships with top tier funds in the global private equity industry. Previously, Mikko spent 6 years with Investment Management Tresor in Finland where he progressed from Portfolio Assistant to Portfolio Manager. In addition to public equity portfolio management, he strongly contributed to improve the risk management and reporting functions. Mikko holds a Master of Science in Finance from the Helsinki School of Economics and is also a CFA Charterholder. He is a Finnish National.

Max Vuokko, Investment Associate

Prior to joining Access on August 22nd 2011, Max was part of the Investment team of Hamilton Lane in London, involved in both primary & secondary investments during his assignment. Previously he had worked for Nomura Private Equity as an Associate, sourcing direct investments and monitoring private equity portfolios. From 2001 to 2006, he successively was employed by Nordea, JP Morgan and KPMG which gave him the opportunity to familiarize himself with a great variety of financial products and strengthen his skills. Max graduated from the Helsinki Swedish School of Economics. He holds a Master of Science in Economics with major in Finance. He is a Finnish national.

Louis Trincano, Advising Partner

Prior to joining Access on September 5th 2011, Louis spent three years at 3i in the Fund Investor Relations team where he was instrumental in raising 3i Growth Capital Fund. He previously served eight years as a fund of funds manager latterly with JP Morgan in London and New York and prior to that at AGF Private Equity (now Idinvest Partners) in Paris. Louis started his career in 1997 at BNP Paribas in Dublin and Paris as credit analyst of international mid-market companies. He is a former member of the Funds of Funds Commission of AFIC, the French Private Equity Association. He is a graduate of the Financial Section of the European Business School Paris. He is a French National.

Christine Martins-Pinto, Company Secretary

Before joining Access on Jun 16th 2011, Christine was a Director of Legal & Fiscal Affairs of the French Private Equity Association (AFIC) where she actively contributed to support Private Equity interest on national level and more specifically towards public policymakers and regulators. From 2001 to 2008, she was a Legal Director at Axa Investment Managers Private Equity Europe where she gained extensive knowledge in corporate finance law, code of ethics & compliance. She commenced her career with Cyril Finance as a Corporate Lawyer. Christine holds a Master in Banking & Finance Law from Sorbonne University in Paris. She is a French National.

Clothilde Boucher, Group Controller

Prior to joining Access on May 16th 2011, Clothilde spent 5 years at Electrabel Group, a GDF Suez company subsidiary, as a Corporate Controller where she played an active role in controlling activities throughout a wide range of fields within the Benedelux region. She previously was employed during 8 years by PricewaterhouseCoopers, as a Senior Associate in the Audit Department then as a Manager for the Global Accounting Managing Service. She covered a broad spectrum of activities such as IFRS conversion projects and development of new service offering. She began her career at Mazars as an audit Associate. Clothilde graduated from the ESC Lille Business School where she specialized in Finance, Auditing and Management. She is a French National.
