Access Capital Partners successfully closes its sixth generation European Smaller Buy-out Fund of funds at €644 million, reflecting continuous appetite from investors for established funds of funds with niche expertise.

Access Capital Partners (“Access”) is pleased to announce the final closing of its sixth generation European Smaller Buy-out Fund of funds, Access Capital Fund VI Growth Buy-out Europe (“ACF VI” or the “Fund”) at €644 million, above the original target.

Commitments were secured from a broad and geographically diverse investor base with approximately 60% of the Fund coming from insurance companies, 30% from pension funds, and 10% from asset managers, family offices and foundations.

Existing investors who renewed their support for this new Fund represent 75% of the commitments.

Access’ Managing Partners commented: “We are grateful for our investors’ confidence in our team and the Fund’s investment strategy that we have been successfully pursuing for the past sixteen years”.

Like its predecessors, ACF VI makes primary and secondary investments in European smaller buy-out and special situations funds executing compelling growth-oriented strategies. The Fund leverages Access’ extensive market coverage and longstanding relationships among established and emerging European fund managers in that segment.

The Fund has already committed nearly 50% of its size to primary European smaller buy-out funds and secondary transactions.
